Preserving Family Ties Media: Bridging Theory & Practice in Family Transitions Navigating Family Change: Tools, Insights, and Narratives

Join Us! Traditional, Independent, and Self Publishers are invited to show case your books, workbooks, and media directly with family professionals who can appreciate, utilize and recommend your materials!

When & Where: 7th ANNUAL PASG CONFERENCE, September 10-12, 2025 in Toronto, Canada

About the Program: Preserving Family Ties Media, LLC continues its commitment to connecting conference attendees with a rich showcase of meaningful books and media addressing parental alienation, high conflict child custody, best practices and self-care. This program delivers essential information, education, and support for family professionals. It unites diverse perspectives—from research and legal guidance to practical tools and lived experiences—all vital for shaping effective practice and policy.

Our Targeted Audience:

- Global Researchers: Shaping the future of family studies.
- Dedicated Practitioners: Therapists, social workers, mediators, legal professionals.
- Diverse Family Professionals: From around the world and across disciplines.
- Child Advocates and Parents: Eager to Learn!

Opportunities to Engage Your Audience:

1. Book & Media Display Space Showcase your most relevant titles and media within our central exhibit. We handle the display, so your resources get seen without requiring your on-site staff. No staff expense for you!
